Pedemontana, start of work with Berlusconi

Pubblicato: Mercoledì 3 Febbraio 2010

After a wait of almost fifty years, the company “Autostrada Pedemontana Lombarda” is getting things rolling, with the beginning of building work on the new motorway. The inauguration ceremony for the site, which is to be held on Saturday 6 February, will be attended by top national and regional authorities. The Prime Minister, Silvio Berlusconi will also be there to give a symbolic start to the work. The first road yard to open will be that of Cassano Magnago, where the inauguration ceremony will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
