Send your marriage photos. You can win a holiday and a shopping spree

Pubblicato: Mercoledì 20 Gennaio 2016

The contest dedicated to the marriages of the readers returns. The last contest saw the participation of hundreds of readers who sent thousands of pictures.

After two years from the latest edition, we are now ready to open a new contest. The photos which have arrived up today can be seen in the specific section in the Varese news community and you can send you pictures right now.

The prizes

At stake, for this new edition, there are:

- for the winner there is a mini-trip (one night with breakfast in a destination to be defined)
- for the second and the third classified there is one prepaid card each one, provided by the supermarket Tigros (value 100 euros)

Who can participate in the contest

All the photos which have been inserted in the community in 2015 participate in it, and all those which will be published by 28 February 2016. All readers can subscribe with their civil or religious marriage, with a selection of at least 10 photos.

How to participate

It is possible to participate in two ways:

- 1 – you can register here at the Community of Varesenews. Once the registration is done you will have to chose the “Marriages” section, attach and send the photos.
- 2 – you can send the pictures via email to sposi@varesenews.it indicating in the subject “Contest 2016” and in the text the newlyweds’ name and the wedding location. You will receive confirmation as soon as the email will be read.

Deadline and judgement

The deadline for the receiving of the photos (in the community or via email) is by February 28. The judgement by the editorial staff will be incontestable. If there will be some equal judgements, the photos sent through the community will have priority.
